Re: Subpoena to OptumRx, Inc. Dated December 28, 2020

Dear Wendy, Linda and Paige:

With this letter and accompanying document, which will be provided via a secure link, OptumRx, Inc. (hereinafter "Optum," or "the Company") makes its first production in response to the Subpoena dated December 28, 2020, as clarified by our various telephone calls (the "Subpoena"). For ease of reference, this production has been Bates-numbered OPTUM1220_0000001 – OPTUM1220_0000002.

This production includes information responsive to Request 1. Per our telephone and email communications on February 5 and February 26, 2021, the enclosed document provides, by year, for 2016-2020, the total rebates associated with prescriptions filled at pharmacies in the District of Columbia for the ten manufacturers from whom Optum has received the largest such rebates.

The enclosed document contains or constitutes confidential business information, records, and/or trade secrets of Optum and we have branded it "CONFIDENTIAL" and are producing it pursuant to our July 1, 2021 Confidentiality Agreement with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.

July 13, 2021

The submission of the enclosed materials does not waive, nor is it intended to waive, any rights, privileges, or immunities of Optum with respect to this matter, including any applicable attorney-client privilege, protection provided under the work-product doctrine, or other privilege or immunity that may exist. In the event of any inadvertent production of privileged materials, Optum requests that the government refrain from reviewing such materials and return the same promptly to Optum. Moreover, to the extent that non-responsive documents, pages, or information have been produced inadvertently, Optum does not agree to any expansion of the scope of your request. Optum expressly reserves any applicable privileges and immunities to which it is entitled under the law.

Please call me if you have any questions about any aspect of this letter or the enclosed document.

Sincerely,

/s/
